USE OF YOUR INFORMATION - DISCLAIMER

The information you are about to provide will be disclosed to us for the purpose of considering this application. We will use this information or forward your information onto other lenders to carry out searches with credit reference agencies and other regulatory and statutory bodies. A record of those searches will be kept and may be used by other lenders in assessing applications from you and members of your household for credit in the future. Lenders will cross-check this information with other lenders to prevent fraud and may use this information for statistical or marketing purposes. Lenders may use credit scoring as part of their decision making process. We may also disclose information to other companies and we or they may use such information to advise you or any of our or their services or of and other persons services which may be relevant to you. The dealer completing this proposal should tell you of the purposes for which he may use this information. You should make the credit intermediary aware of any future changes that may affect your ability to make repayments detailed in your agreement. The credit intermediary can introduce you to a limited number of lenders who may be able to finance your purchase. They can only introduce you to these lenders, who may pay them a fee for introducing you to them. Failure to make payments as they fall due will mean that you have broken the terms of your agreement and could result in a Creditor taking legal action against you. This may include repossession of the goods and / or obtaining a charging order against the property you own. You may incur additional costs and it could make it more difficult for you to obtain credit. If you have any health issues that could affect your ability to fully understand (the product) or the commitment you are entering into, you should consider very carefully whether you need further time to consider this application or would like a family member or friend to help you make your decision. Please tell the Credit Intermediary if this is the case.
